HONEN AND SHINRAN

Sunday, November 14 at 3 p.m.
Zellerbach Hall, UC Berkeley

Honen and Shinran (2006) written by Tajima Ei.

A moving historical drama depicting the upheaval of 13th-century Japan, and two priests, Honen and Shinran, who opened a path to freedom through affirming the essence of life and human existence in a time of civil war and moral collapse. Because of their break from monastic traditions and their founding of a lay ministry, they are often compared with Calvin and Luther.

If you and your friends would like to join BBT members for this performance at the special group rate of $40.80 (normally $48), please fill out the form below and send it with your check to Berkeley Buddhist Temple by September 15. For more information, please contact Emiko Katsumoto.
