Temple Reflections

In April we were privileged to have Taye Oda as our guest speaker for our Centennial Lecture Series. She reflected upon our Temple's history and her experiences with many of the people whose vision and dedication helped build the Temple we have today.

The Temple has served as a place of worship, a place to learn, and a home. Mrs. Oda's narrative voiced a deep appreciation for all the people who have given their time and energy to update, beautify and run our Temple in the spirit of dana.

She expressed her heartfelt thanks to everyone for their continuing support and encourages us to do what we can to help others.

Thank you Taye for your inspiring words. We are blessed with your friendship and sharing of the Dharma.

Gassho,
Scott Takeda
